Riding Instructors

We are pleased to announce the appointment of Raema Racher and Kaitlin Malterer as Riding Instructors at Ridgeview Central School developing and providing a riding program for students of varied riding abilities including whole classes, small groups and individual lessons. Their new roles and responsibilities will be in place for the 2018-2019 school year.

Raema Racher – Raema Racher has 30 years of experience offering riding lessons delivering the Equine Canada Rider Programs.

"I am very excited to have an opportunity to lead the development of the Ridgeview Ride Program and prove that we can consistently create a positive change in children's lives thru the connection with horses!"

Kaitlin Malterer – Kaitlin received an Equine Science Diploma in 2017 and has 15 years of riding experience under various Equine Canada qualified coaches.

"I am very excited to bring my love of horses to the students and excite them about learning through our equine partners!"
